Just plain awesome!

Now I can play ping pong whenever I want on my vive and that too for a low low price of < than 5 bucks! I'm no expert ping pong player but have played a bit of table tennis in college. This game is fun and essentially, captures the 'ebb and flow' of a real match. The environment is good, the crowd's applause and boos help with the immersion and the modes so far (a full tournament, broken table mode where parts of the table where the ball bounces disappears, practice mode etc.) are well realised. The physics could do with little tweaks though, the serving mechanics take some time to get used to (I don't have a problem with it though I can see why people would want other options) and a multiplayer mode would be awesome (devs are aware of this request!). The devs appear dedicated and the update today (7/11/2016) seems to have implemented a few community requests already (logo on ball, serve using any button). All in all, you cannot really go wrong with this game at its current state and price (it's worth more, seriously)!. Truly an amazing game. Me and my mam both really enjoyed this game. Got stuck a some points but managed. Thanks for an amazing experience.. \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665ing amazing many different playthroughs to get to the actual end but each playthrough is much different with many twists and turns i highly recommend this game it is such a breath of fresh air in this stagnant industry do yourself a favor and get it it is one of the few games i have actually played from beginning to end and i would highly recommend the developers. I was hoping this would be like Diddy Kong Racing. It's not.. Interesting game. Allows to remember old times! Read training and you will understand. It is strange what nobody has made earlier.

Although rather buggy at the time of writing this, when you can actually get a game going, this is a whole load of fun. I'm not a big card game buff but I thoroughly enjoyed this and had many laughs with my friends playing it, I can see it being another big card game franchise if the underlying bugs are fixed.. As a fan of Bejeweled with about 60 hours clocked in on that game, I tried this out when I snagged a coupon to get it for $1. It's awful in every way. It isn't anywhere near as visually appealing as Bejeweled. It's not as fun. There's nothing about it to make it worth playing or to separate it from the competition. Add to that the horrible Topware DRM added to a Steam game and it's just a nasty waste of $1.. Really enjoy this little app. It's a lovely piece of digital ambience, with a bit of a learning curve for the first few minutes. After that, it becomes a wonderfully relaxing way to spend half an hour napping.. I love those games that start you off with an awesome gun and you can just plow your way through the first section, of course as the intensity builds up those power ups will come in hand and don't worry, there's plenty of them in this game, pumping you up like a hamster on steroids.

. Don't buy this game.

Ever.

The graphics are those from the PS2 or the original Xbox, or a 2005 PC game, the gameplay is boring, too restrained and total \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665t, the typos are so obvious it's incredible these devs didn't look like they did know what a dictionary was, loading screens between every single screen that last forever, and a plethora of annoying framerate drops.

If this game was made in mobile platforms, it would be OK, because nobody would give a\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 but it's not worth of Steam. Did people actually let this game pass through the Greenlight process and let it sell around? No sir, not in my town. If you want Tower Defense games, try Warcraft III instead.

Not to mention this game looked like it was overusing assets from the Unity asset store.. good title, and great game good luck. It's really cool. It's not a game that I would spend all my time on, but it's a game you can play quietly on your bed if you have a laptop and plan and use your brain to defeat aliens.I played this on mobile for awhile, and it's way better here. One thing that I would recommend is taking your time on planning what your base is.

As a long time player, these are the things that'll get you:

- Shielded aliens
- Armoured shielded aliens
- Regen. shielded aliens
- Super shielded aliens
- Crystallite aliens

Basically, the shielded aliens are hard in groups. I use the saws to rip shields off the aliens, but they only last for so long.
